

THE SILENT VOICE WITHIN

TRUTH

VOL. 4

The Courage to See Clearly

ALBUM OVERVIEW

The courage to see clearly

Truth is often treated as a possession, a weapon or a final answer. This album follows another path. It begins in the noise of competing voices and manufactured certainty, then moves through discernment, self-confrontation, humility and listening. Its central conviction is that living truth respects freedom, accepts correction, walks with compassion and becomes credible through the fruits of a life.

THE ALBUM'S JOURNEY

NOISE → DISCERNMENT → CONFRONTATION → HUMILITY → LISTENING → FREEDOM → COMPASSION → SINCERITY → LIBERATION → TRUTH LIVED

A NOTE TO THE READER

This public songbook is an invitation to encounter the words behind the music. Each song is accompanied by its story and its place in the album's journey. Technical production notes, vocal instructions and creation prompts have been intentionally omitted so that the lyrics and their spiritual meaning remain at the centre of the reading experience.

TRACKS

NO	SONG	THEME
01	When Every Voice Claims to Know	Discernment amid synthetic images, borrowed voices, urgency and manufactured certainty
02	Between the Facts and the Fear	Separating what has happened from what fear predicts without denying either one
03	The Mirror I Avoided	Facing personal responsibility without allowing shame to define the whole person
04	Room for What I Do Not Know	Intellectual humility, faithful questioning and reverence for realities larger than the finite mind
05	Listen Before the Answer	Listening deeply enough for another person's reality to change the response
06	Truth Needs No Weapon	Defending truth without coercion, humiliation, domination or fear
07	Clear Eyes, Open Heart	Holding clarity and compassion together when facing harm, conflict and human imperfection
08	No More Hiding from Myself	Recognizing rationalization, false motives and the roles used to avoid inner honesty
09	The Door That Truth Opens	Discovering the freedom, repair and new possibilities revealed by accepted truth
10	Let My Life Say It	Allowing truth to become visible through choices, service, freedom, goodness and love

TRACK 01

When Every Voice Claims to Know

Discernment amid synthetic images, borrowed voices, urgency and manufactured certainty

THE STORY BEHIND THE SONG

The album opens inside the modern storm of information. A familiar face can be borrowed, a voice can be imitated, and a fragment stripped of context can travel farther than the truth. The narrator refuses both cynicism and gullibility. Instead of surrendering judgment to speed, fear or appearance, she learns to pause, verify the source, examine intention and watch the fruits. The inner light does not replace evidence; it gives her the honesty and patience required to seek it. Truth begins here as a disciplined willingness to question without closing the heart.

ITS PLACE IN THE ALBUM

The threshold of the album: artificial certainty gives way to patient, humane discernment.

LYRICS

(Do you know?)
(Do you know?)

[Verse 1]

A face appears behind the glass
Wearing someone else's light
A familiar voice repeats
Words that never lived that night
Every answer sounds so certain
Every image asks belief
But certainty can wear a mask
And urgency can hide a thief

[Pre-Chorus]

So I will breathe before I share
And question what I see
Truth is never harmed by care
And doubt can serve integrity

[Chorus]

When every voice claims to know
I won't be carried by the flow
I'll hold the question, test the ground
And listen past the loudest sound
A borrowed face can look alive
A borrowed voice can testify
But I will seek what time can show
When every voice claims to know

[Post-Chorus]

(Claims to know...)
(Claims to know...)

[Verse 2]

One small fact is stripped of context
Bent to fit a ready frame
Half a sentence finds an army
Before anyone asks its name
The heart can race ahead of reason
When the warning bells are near
So I will not call something certain
Only because it feeds my fear

[Pre-Chorus 2]

I will seek the source and purpose
I will ask who gains control
For a message may look perfect
And still never carry soul

[Chorus]

When every voice claims to know
I won't be carried by the flow
I'll hold the question, test the ground
And listen past the loudest sound
A borrowed face can look alive
A borrowed voice can testify
But I will seek what time can show
When every voice claims to know

[Bridge]

The light within can keep me honest
It never turns a guess to truth
It teaches me to seek with patience
And let the evidence come through
Truth and love must walk together
Fact and mercy side by side
For the truth that makes us freer
Has no need to shame or hide

[Breakdown]

I don't need the quickest answer
I don't need the loudest show
I can hold a quiet question
When every voice claims to know

[Final Chorus]

When every voice claims to know
I won't be carried by the flow
I'll hold the question, test the ground
And listen past the loudest sound
No borrowed face, no perfect lie
Will make me close my heart or eyes
I'll seek the source, I'll watch the fruit
And let my life stand with the truth

[Outro]

I don't need the quickest answer
I don't need the loudest show
I can hold a quiet question
When every voice claims to know

TRACK 02

Between the Facts and the Fear

Separating what has happened from what fear predicts without denying either one

THE STORY BEHIND THE SONG

A message arrives, the body reacts and the imagination completes the story before the evidence has spoken. This song enters the narrow space between an observable fact and the meanings fear attaches to it. The narrator does not treat fear as an enemy; he listens to its warning while refusing to grant it authority over the whole situation. Memory, emotion, reason and courage are brought into relationship. Wisdom appears not as emotional numbness, but as the capacity to hold fact and feeling together until a responsible choice becomes possible.

ITS PLACE IN THE ALBUM

Discernment enters the body: anxious reaction slows into clarity, proportion and chosen courage.

LYRICS

[Verse 1]

A message breaks the quiet room
And wakes the pulse beneath my skin
My mind has drawn a thousand endings
Before the evidence comes in
A headline burns against the glass
And every warning feels too near
One possibility becomes
A world constructed out of fear

[Pre-Chorus]

Fear is not my enemy
It only sounds the old alarm
I can hear what it is telling me
Without surrendering my calm

[Chorus]

Between the facts and the fear
I'll make a space where truth grows clear
What happened and what I assume
Can wear the same familiar tune
I will not call the darkness light
Or turn a shadow into night
I'll breathe until the path appears
Between the facts and the fear

[Post-Chorus]

(Ooh... between the facts...)
(Ooh... between the fear...)

[Verse 2]

A fact can stand without a story
A story tells me what it means
My memory fills every silence
With every wound I've ever seen
I learned to fear the closing door
So every hinge became a threat
But yesterday is not a verdict
On the road I haven't traveled yet

[Pre-Chorus 2]

I'll name the fact and name the feeling
Let neither one pretend to be
The whole of what is now unfolding
Or all that's still becoming me

[Chorus]

Between the facts and the fear
I'll make a space where truth grows clear
What happened and what I assume
Can wear the same familiar tune
I will not call the darkness light
Or turn a shadow into night
I'll breathe until the path appears
Between the facts and the fear

[Bridge]

The truth may ask me to take action
The truth may ask me to be still Wisdom lives within relation
Between the fact, the fear, the will
I do not honor truth by hiding
Or serve it when I turn away
I let love question what I'm choosing
Then courage shows the wiser way

[Breakdown]

What happened
What I fear
Let me hold them both right here
Not the same
Not opposed
Truth can show me where to go

[Final Chorus]

Between the facts and the fear
I'll make a space where truth grows clear
What happened and what I assume
No longer share the same closed room
I will not call the darkness light
Or turn a shadow into night
With love beside me, I can steer
Between the facts and the fear

[Outro]

What happened
What I fear
I can hold them both right here
And wait until the way grows clear
Between the facts and the fear

TRACK 03

The Mirror I Avoided

Facing personal responsibility without allowing shame to define the whole person

THE STORY BEHIND THE SONG

The search for truth turns inward. The narrator finally faces the mirror he has avoided: the harm he caused, the excuses he made and the distance between his ideals and his conduct. Yet the mirror is not a courtroom that fixes him forever in his worst moment. It becomes a place where accountability and mercy can meet. He accepts responsibility without surrendering the possibility of growth, repair and renewed choice. In the album's progression, truth becomes personal: no longer merely something to identify in the world, but something that asks the self to change.

ITS PLACE IN THE ALBUM

Truth turns inward: avoidance and shame become accountability, mercy and renewed agency.

LYRICS

[Verse 1]

I kept the hallway dim at night
And passed the glass without a sound
I feared the eyes that waited there
Would name the things I buried down
I blamed the shadows on the wall
The hands that left, the doors that closed
But every story left one line
About the choice I never owned

[Pre-Chorus]

I thought the truth would be a sentence
I thought it came to make me small
But truth arrived without a weapon
And mercy stood behind it all

[Chorus]

The mirror I avoided
Did not turn away from me
It held the truth without condemning
And the person I could be
I saw the harm, I saw the hiding
And the love I had denied
But the mirror I avoided
Left a doorway open wide

[Post-Chorus]

(Open wide...)
(Open wide...)

[Verse 2]

There were apologies unspoken
And names I would not let return
Promises I called impossible
So I would never have to learn
I wore regret like proof of goodness
As if sorrow paid the debt
But feeling pain is not repentance
Till love changes what comes next

[Pre-Chorus 2]

I cannot change the road behind me
I can choose the step ahead
The soul is grown by honest choosing
Not by wishing truth unsaid

[Chorus]

The mirror I avoided
Did not turn away from me
It held the truth without condemning
And the person I could be
I saw the harm, I saw the hiding
And the love I had denied
But the mirror I avoided
Left a doorway open wide

[Bridge]

If I am still becoming
Then failure is not all I am
But growth is more than self-forgiving
It repairs whatever it can
Mercy never calls the wound harmless
Or asks the past to disappear
It gives me strength to face the mirror
And choose a truer path from here

[Breakdown]

Look again
Stay with the eyes
No defense
No disguise
Name the wound
Name the choice
Truth and mercy
Share one voice

[Final Chorus]

The mirror I avoided
Does not turn away from me
It holds the truth without condemning
And the person I can be
I see the harm, I end the hiding
I let love stand by my side
In the mirror I avoided
There is still a door open wide

[Outro]

I am more than what I've broken
But I answer for it too
Truth has shown me where I'm standing
Love will show me what to do

TRACK 04

Room for What I Do Not Know

Intellectual humility, faithful questioning and reverence for realities larger than the finite mind

THE STORY BEHIND THE SONG

After confronting false certainty and personal self-deception, the album makes room for mystery. The singer discovers that humility is not indifference and that unanswered questions are not failures of faith. Facts still matter, beliefs still require examination, and the mind must remain teachable. But reality is larger than any single perspective. By leaving a window open for what she does not yet understand, she exchanges the need to possess truth for the freedom to keep growing toward it. Wonder becomes a companion to discernment rather than its opposite.

ITS PLACE IN THE ALBUM

The album makes room for mystery: defensive certainty opens into humility and living wonder.

LYRICS

[Verse 1]

I drew a border round the stars
And called the circle all there was
I gave a name to mystery
Then thought the name explained the cause
I built a ladder out of facts
And climbed as far as reason led
But every answer opened doors
To larger questions still ahead

[Pre-Chorus]

The unknown is not an empty space
Where any claim may wear truth's face
It is the honest edge of sight
Where I can say, "I may not be right"

[Chorus]

There is room for what I do not know
Room enough to let the wonder grow
I don't lose the truths I've come to trust
When I say my sight is made of dust
There is room beyond the edge I see
Room for truth still making more of me
I can stand with courage, open-handed
Before a world I never could command

[Post-Chorus]

(Room to wonder...)
(Room to grow...)

[Verse 2]

Some use mystery to sell an answer
Some use knowledge like a wall
One can make the mind surrender
One can make the spirit small
I will test the claims before me
I will learn from what is shown
But I will not make my limits
The boundary of all that can be known

[Pre-Chorus 2]

Humility is not surrender
It does not ask me to believe
It keeps the mind and heart together
So new truth has room to breathe

[Chorus]

There is room for what I do not know
Room enough to let the wonder grow
I don't lose the truths I've come to trust
When I say my sight is made of dust
There is room beyond the edge I see
Room for truth still making more of me
I can stand with courage, open-handed
Before a world I never could command

[Bridge]

The Infinite exceeds my language
Yet draws me toward a larger view
The quiet presence deep within me
Never makes a guess come true
It asks for patience, work, and courage
In every truth that I pursue
And every honest "I don't know"
Can be a door I travel through

[Breakdown]

Not every silence is an answer
Not every mystery is a sign
I can meet what I don't yet know
With an open heart and honest mind

[Final Chorus]

There is room for what I do not know
Room enough to let the wonder grow
I don't lose the truths I've come to trust
When I say my sight is made of dust
There is room beyond the edge I see
Room for truth still making more of me
I will stand with courage, open-handed
Before the truth I cannot command

[Outro]

Leave the window open
Let the deeper wonder grow
I can live with faithful questions
Room for what I do not know

TRACK 05

Listen Before the Answer

Listening deeply enough for another person's reality to change the response

THE STORY BEHIND THE SONG

This song moves truth from private reflection into relationship. In a culture trained to answer quickly, defend identity and win the exchange, listening can become a moral act. The lead voice learns that silence is not emptiness: it can hold pain, context and meaning that would be lost beneath a prepared reply. The answering ensemble gradually turns conversation into community. Listening does not require abandoning conviction; it allows conviction to become informed by dignity, patience and genuine contact with another person.

ITS PLACE IN THE ALBUM

Truth enters relationship: prepared answers soften into presence, dialogue and shared understanding.

LYRICS

[Verse 1]

I called it listening but waited
 For a space to make my case
 Turned the words that you had offered
 Into weapons I could raise
 Then I noticed your hands trembling
 While your voice still carried on
 You were not asking me to join you
 Only not to hear you wrong

[Pre-Chorus]

So I let the ready answer
 Fall unopened from my tongue
 For a person is not finished
 When a single word is sung

[Chorus]

Listen before the answer
 Let the silence have its say
 There is more inside a person
 Than the words they bring today
 Listen for the fear and longing
 For the truth beneath the tone
 You may never share their judgment
 But you need not leave them alone

[Post-Chorus]

[Lead] Listen...

[Response] Let the silence speak

[Lead] Listen...

[Response] Hear the life beneath

[Verse 2]

Every soul has rooms unspoken
 Every choice has roots below
 Some are shaped by hidden sorrow
 Some by hopes I cannot know
 I do not have to solve your struggle
 Or rename the path you bear
 Sometimes love becomes most useful
 When it stays and listens there

[Pre-Chorus 2]

Listening is not surrender
Nor agreement without end
It is courage growing tender
Making room to comprehend

[Chorus]

Listen before the answer
Let the silence have its say
There is more inside a person
Than the words they bring today
Listen for the fear and longing
For the truth beneath the tone
You may never share their judgment
But you need not leave them alone

[Bridge]

[Lead] Tell me what I did not notice

[Response] Tell me what I failed to see

[Lead] I will not erase your freedom

[Response] You will not decide for me

[Lead] We may leave without agreement

[Response] Yet with dignity intact

[Lead] Truth can live within the distance

[Response] When love does not attack

[Breakdown]

[Lead] Before the answer

[Response] Let the silence speak

[Lead] Before the judgment

[Response] Hear the life beneath

[Lead] I can hold the difference

[Response] I can stay with you

[All] Listening is something love can do

[Final Chorus]

Listen before the answer
Let the silence have its say
There is more inside a person
Than the words they bring today
Listen for the fear and longing
For the truth beneath the tone
We may never share one judgment
But we need not stand alone

[Outro]

Before I answer
I will hear
The life behind
The words I fear

[Whispered]

Listen.

TRACK 06

Truth Needs No Weapon

Defending truth without coercion, humiliation, domination or fear

THE STORY BEHIND THE SONG

At the album's center, conviction is tested by the means used to defend it. The narrator has learned to make arguments sharp, to silence opposition and to confuse victory with faithfulness. A quieter question interrupts him: what fruits does his anger produce? Truth can name injustice and stand courageously before power, but it betrays itself when it strips another personality of freedom or dignity. The song expresses a central spiritual principle of the project: truth and love must walk together. What requires fear and force to survive has ceased to serve the truth it claims to protect.

ITS PLACE IN THE ALBUM

The album reaches its moral center: conviction becomes courageous while continuing to respect freedom.

LYRICS

[Verse 1]

I learned the language of the certain
How to sharpen every claim
How to turn a sacred question
Into someone else's shame
I thought defending truth meant winning
Leaving no dissent alive
But a truth that fears examination
Is only fear in truth's disguise

[Pre-Chorus]

Then a quiet voice within me
Asked what fruit my anger grew
Was I serving what was holy
Or the need to prove I knew?

[Chorus]

Truth needs no weapon, no fist, no throne
No fear to make another soul its own
Truth needs no prison, no guarded wall
It does not rise by making others small
If what I call truth must silence you
Then I have lost the truth I knew
Truth needs no weapon to be strong
It walks with love or it has gone wrong

[Post-Chorus]

(No weapon...)
(No throne...)

[Verse 2]

You cannot force a seed to open
Or command the dawn to rise
You cannot make a soul awaken
With a hand across its eyes
Love can speak with steady courage
Name the danger, name the harm
But it loses truth's allegiance
When it reaches for an arm

[Pre-Chorus 2]

Freedom is not truth abandoned
It is where truth must begin
For a choice has moral meaning
Only when it rises free within

[Chorus]

Truth needs no weapon, no fist, no throne
No fear to make another soul its own
Truth needs no prison, no guarded wall
It does not rise by making others small
If what I call truth must silence you
Then I have lost the truth I knew
Truth needs no weapon to be strong
It walks with love or it has gone wrong

[Bridge]

Truth can overturn a kingdom
Truth can name the hidden shame
Truth can stand before the powerful
Without borrowing their flame
It can break a chain of silence
It can call the wounded home
But it never frees the captive
By becoming one more throne

[Breakdown]

No weapon
No throne
No fear
To own
No silence
No shame
Truth and love
One flame

[Final Chorus]

Truth needs no weapon, no fist, no throne
No fear to make another soul its own
Truth needs no prison, no guarded wall
It does not rise by making others small
If what I call truth must silence you
Then I have lost the truth I knew
Truth needs no weapon to be strong
It walks with love or it has gone wrong

[Outro]

Speak it clearly
Hold it humbly
Live it bravely
Leave them free
Truth needs no weapon
To be what it must be

TRACK 07

Clear Eyes, Open Heart

Holding clarity and compassion together when facing harm, conflict and human imperfection

THE STORY BEHIND THE SONG

Truth without compassion can reduce a person to a failure; compassion without truth can leave a wound untouched. This duet refuses the false choice between them. The two voices learn to name what is wrong, protect dignity, consider consequences and still remember that every personality is becoming. An open heart does not soften evil into innocence, and clear eyes do not demand hatred. Wisdom joins accurate perception to mercy so that justice can protect growth rather than end the story at its darkest chapter.

ITS PLACE IN THE ALBUM

Clarity and compassion meet, revealing that each is strongest when it remains united with the other.

LYRICS

Clear eyes...
Open heart...
Clear eyes...
Open heart...

[Verse 1]

I used to think that seeing true
Would make the heart withdraw in fear
As if compassion broke in two
The moment every scar grew clear
But love that will not face the pain
Can leave the deepest wounds unseen
And facts that harden into chains
Forget what human hearts can mean

[Pre-Chorus]

So let me neither close my eyes
Nor close my heart to what I find
Let mercy teach my sight to rise
And truth keep mercy from going blind

[Chorus]

Clear eyes, open heart
Let them never stand apart
I will name the wound I see
And still defend your dignity
I won't turn away from pain
I won't let it forge my chains
Truth and love, one living spark
Clear eyes, open heart

[Post-Chorus]

See it clear
Hold them near
Eyes awake
A heart without hate
Clear eyes...
Open heart...

[Verse 2]

Some voices make the whole world small
A side to praise, a side to blame
But every soul behind the wall
Is more than label, tribe, or name

I will not soften what is wrong
Or call the darkness something bright
But I can stand both kind and strong
And leave your freedom in the light

[Pre-Chorus 2]

For wisdom sees the deed and seed
The present wound, the soul's own flight
It weighs the consequence and need
But never strips a soul of light

[Chorus]

Clear eyes, open heart
Let them never stand apart
I will name the wound I see
And still defend your dignity
I won't turn away from pain
I won't let it forge my chains
Truth and love, one living spark
Clear eyes, open heart

[Bridge]

If every person is becoming
No one moment draws the line
All the chapters still are coming
Grace can meet us over time
I can name the harm before me
I can choose the good and true
Yet refuse to end your story
At the worst I saw in you

[Breakdown]

Clear enough to face the night
Open enough to keep the light
Wise enough to count the cost
Loving enough to seek the lost

[Final Chorus]

Clear eyes, open heart
Let them never stand apart
We will name the wounds we see
And guard each other's dignity
We won't turn away from pain
We won't let it forge our chains
Truth and love, one living spark
Clear eyes, open heart

[Post-Chorus]

See it clear
Hold them near
Eyes awake
A heart without hate
Clear eyes...
Open heart...

[Outro]

Let the truth be clear and kind
Let compassion sharpen sight
Let the heart and seeing mind
Walk together toward the light
Clear eyes...
Open heart...

TRACK 08

No More Hiding from Myself

Recognizing rationalization, false motives and the roles used to avoid inner honesty

THE STORY BEHIND THE SONG

The singer has learned to edit every story until she appears innocent, to dress fear in noble language and to blame the world for chains she is afraid to release. The song exposes self-deception without turning confession into self-rejection. Sincerity begins when intention is judged by its fruits and forgiveness is not used as an escape from repair. The self is neither a spotless history nor a finished failure. By naming fear, pride and consequence, the narrator becomes free to make amends and choose a more honest life.

ITS PLACE IN THE ALBUM

Sincerity deepens: self-protection becomes confession, responsibility, repair and inner freedom.

LYRICS

No more hiding...
No more hiding...

[Verse 1]

I learned to edit every story
Until I always looked sincere
I dressed my fear in borrowed glory
And called avoidance being clear
I wore a different face through every doorway
A careful answer fitted to the room
But every mask became a narrow hallway
And every silence gathered into gloom

[Pre-Chorus]

The quiet truth was never shouting
It waited underneath the noise
It did not ask me to stop doubting
Only to make an honest choice

[Chorus]

No more hiding from myself
No more placing blame on someone else
I can face the fear I feel
I can name the wound and help it heal
I am more than what I hide
When I let the truth and love inside
No more hiding, no more hiding
No more hiding from myself

[Post-Chorus]

No more...
No more...
No more hiding from myself

[Verse 2]

I blamed the world for every chain I carried
Then feared the freedom waiting in my hands
I said my oldest patterns had me buried
As if the past could issue my commands
I used kind words to hide my need for praise
And called my pride devotion to the light
But love looked through the roles I learned to play
And still invited me to choose the right

[Pre-Chorus 2]

I do not have to be perfection
To give the truth a place to start
Sincerity becomes direction
When what I choose reflects my heart

[Chorus]

No more hiding from myself
No more placing blame on someone else
I can face the fear I feel
I can name the wound and help it heal
I am more than what I hide
When I let the truth and love inside
No more hiding, no more hiding
No more hiding from myself

[Bridge]

I am not a finished story
Nor the sum of yesterday
Truth can strip away false glory
Love can show a wiser way
I will not deny the cost
Or use forgiveness as disguise
I will seek what has been lost
And make amends with open eyes

[Breakdown]

Name the fear
Name the pride
Open every door inside
Face the cost
Choose the good
Live the truth the way I should
No more hiding...
No more hiding...

[Final Chorus]

No more hiding from myself
No more blaming anyone else
I can face the fear I feel
I can name the wound and help it heal
I am more than what I hide
I will live the truth I found inside
No more hiding, no more hiding
No more hiding from myself

[Final Refrain]

No more hiding from myself
No more living as somebody else
Every honest choice I make
Lets a truer life awake

[Outro]

Not a spotless history
Not a life beyond all doubt
Only growing honesty
Letting every falsehood out
No more hiding...
From myself...

TRACK 09

The Door That Truth Opens

Discovering the freedom, repair and new possibilities revealed by accepted truth

THE STORY BEHIND THE SONG

Truth first appears to the narrator as an ending: the collapse of a shelter, a final word or a road that can no longer continue. Once accepted, however, it becomes a doorway. Some doors lead toward restitution, some toward an honest conversation, and others toward a life that fear had kept hidden. The song presents truth as living and progressive rather than a room locked against further discovery. An honest fact may close one path, but it can also release the soul from borrowed burdens and place the future back into human hands.

ITS PLACE IN THE ALBUM

Accepted truth becomes a threshold: the loss of false shelter opens movement and renewed possibility.

LYRICS

There is a door...
There is a door...
Truth opens...

[Verse 1]

I thought the truth would end the story
A final word, a closing sound
But when I laid aside false glory
A wider world was all around
I feared the light would break my shelter
And leave me bare upon the sand
Instead, it made my vision clearer
And placed the future in my hands

[Pre-Chorus]

The hardest truth may close one road
But not the journey of the soul
It takes away a borrowed load
And leaves the heart a truer goal

[Chorus]

The door that truth opens
Is wider than I know
Beyond the rooms where fear had frozen
The life I could not show
The door that truth opens
Lets hidden rivers flow
I leave the walls I once depended on
And find the strength to grow

[Post-Chorus]

Open, open
Let the hidden river flow
Open, open
There is farther left to go

[Verse 2]

Some doors reveal a road of mending
A name to clear, a debt to pay
Some end the life I kept pretending
And ask me not to look away
Some open into conversation
Where I must listen, not defend
And truth becomes a new relation
When I make room to comprehend

[Pre-Chorus 2]

No freedom grows from what I bury
No living faith survives disguise
The road ahead may still be scary
But I can meet it with open eyes

[Chorus]

The door that truth opens
Is wider than I know
Beyond the rooms where fear had frozen
The life I could not show
The door that truth opens
Lets hidden rivers flow
I leave the walls I once depended on
And find the strength to grow

[Bridge]

Truth is more than one conclusion
Guarded under rigid skies
It is living revelation
Growing as the spirit rises
Every fact can be a window
Every wound can teach the heart
Every honest step may open
What a lie had kept apart

[Breakdown]

One door closes
One begins
Truth makes room
For life within
No more hiding
No disguise
Walk into
The open sky

[Final Chorus]

The door that truth opens
Is wider than we know
Beyond the rooms where fear had frozen
The lives we could not show
The door that truth opens
Lets living rivers flow
We leave the walls we once depended on
And find the strength to grow

[Post-Chorus]

Open, open
Let the living river flow
Open, open
There is farther left to go

[Outro]

I do not know where it will guide
I only know I must begin
Truth never asks my soul to hide
It opens life from deep within
The door that truth opens...

TRACK 10

Let My Life Say It

Allowing truth to become visible through choices, service, freedom, goodness and love

THE STORY BEHIND THE SONG

The finale gathers the entire album into one lived commitment. Its sections recall the competing voices, the facts and fear, the mirror, the room for mystery, the discipline of listening, truth without weapons, clear eyes, an open heart, the end of hiding and the doorway into freedom. The singer no longer asks merely which words are correct. She asks whether truth has entered her conduct. The final answer is not a slogan but a life: hands offered freely, motives corrected by their fruits, goodness cultivated and love expressed in service. Truth becomes credible when a growing personality embodies it.

ITS PLACE IN THE ALBUM

The journey culminates in truth made visible through goodness, freedom, service and love.

LYRICS

If truth is living...
Let my life say it.

[Verse 1]

When every voice declares its knowing
And fear disguises what is fact
I will slow the river flowing
Till a clearer light comes back
When the mirror shows a stranger
I will not turn from what I see
I will name the hidden danger
And leave room for mystery

[Pre-Chorus]

Truth is more than words I know
More than answers I recite
It must enter where I go
It must teach my steps the light

[Chorus]

Let my life say it
Let my living make it clear
In the hand I offer freely
In the courage facing fear
Let my life say it
Not by weapon, throne, or claim
If the truth is living in me
Let my choices speak its name

[Post-Chorus]

Say it in the way I listen
Say it in the love I give
Truth is more than my position
Truth becomes the way I live

[Verse 2]

I will listen before answering
When another voice is near
I will keep my heart from hardening
As I make the meaning clear
I will not turn truth into a weapon
Or make freedom bow to me
Every soul must choose direction
For a choice to become free

[Pre-Chorus 2]

I will judge my own intention
By the fruit within the seed
Every honest course correction
Makes my purpose match my deed

[Chorus]

Let my life say it
Let my living make it clear
In the hand I offer freely
In the courage facing fear
Let my life say it
Not by weapon, throne, or claim
If the truth is living in me
Let my choices speak its name

[Bridge]

Every truth can be a doorway
Every doubt can sharpen sight
Every wound can mark a new way
When I bring it into light
I do not need to know the ending
To be faithful to this hour
Every soul is still ascending
Love turns truth to living power

[Breakdown]

Clear eyes
Open heart
Never tear the two apart
No more hiding
No disguise
Walk through doors with open eyes

[Final Chorus]

Let our lives say it
Let our living make it clear
In the hands we offer freely
In the courage facing fear
Let our lives say it
Not by weapon, throne, or claim
If the truth is living in us
Let our choices speak its name

[Coda]

When every voice pretends to know
We'll listen first and answer slow
Between the facts and rising fear
We'll keep the heart and vision clear
We'll face the mirror, leave a room
For truths that need more time to bloom
No weapon raised, no self disguised
We'll walk through doors with open eyes

[Final Refrain]

Let our lives say it
Let our lives say it
Not merely something we proclaim
Let every day reveal its name
The truth we live
The love we give
The good instilled
The life we build
Let our lives say it...

[Outro]

If truth is living...
Let my life say it.

PROJECT CREDITS

The Silent Voice Within

PUBLIC ARTIST

The Silent Voice Within

LYRICS AND CREATIVE DIRECTION

Gaetan Charland

INSPIRATION

The teachings of The Urantia Book and contemporary human experience

MUSICAL DEVELOPMENT

Created and developed with Suno during an active Pro subscription

This is an independent artistic project. It is not affiliated with or endorsed by the Urantia Foundation.

© 2026 Gaetan Charland / The Silent Voice Within. All rights reserved.

SEEK WITH HUMILITY · SPEAK WITHOUT VIOLENCE · LIVE WHAT IS TRUE